The Heart Behind Our Mission

At Stewart's Caring Place, we are here for those who need us most—especially during the winter months, which can sometimes feel quiet and reflective. These colder days are also an opportunity to find warmth in connection, comfort in community, and hope in the support we share with one another.

That spirit of connection is made possible by the incredible people behind our programs. To celebrate them, each guide will feature a staff member who is truly at the heart of what we do. It is my honor to introduce the featured team member for this guide: Tom Klein.

Sarah Vojtek

Sarah Vojtek, President & CEO

Hello! My name is Tom Klein and I am a Team Support Specialist here at Stewart's Caring Place. For the past three years, I have had the pleasure of working directly with our participants. Whether it be through providing tours and wig fittings, or managing our food pantry, I am here to remind you that you are not alone by offering a supportive hand as you navigate the challenges of your cancer journey.

My favorite part of working for Stewart's is managing the food pantry. I believe that food is fundamental and no one should go to bed with an empty stomach. It is such a gift to me that my job is so deeply in alignment with my values. That's rare to find and makes each day special.

If you are ever in the building and looking for me, you can find me in our pantry making sure the shelves are stocked, clean and organized. Either that, or in my office mining for resources so our participants can put their energy towards the things that matter most. However, I'm the only male on the staff, so I am easy to find regardless.

They say the farther down along the path that you go, the path becomes more narrow. It then becomes our job to widen that path. And if you ever need a hand widening that path, then consider that part of my job as well. I am always happy to help.

Thank you for being a part of a group of people that I care so much about. Despite the circumstances, I am happy you are here!

Best,

Tom Klein
